

Right to Read Childcare Center Emergency Evacuation Plan

In case of an emergency that requires evacuation, the children will leave the building through the north-west exit (if safe) towards the parking lot. They will then gather outside the main gated area. If possible, parents should also exit to the west and assist in evacuating their children. All parents and children will then gather together at the main gate until everyone is accounted for.

